"Challenging believers to think and thinkers to believe"

What is Apologetics?

Apologetics comes from the Greek word apologia, meaning to give an answer or defense, specifically of Christian truth claims. The Apostle Peter exhorts all Christians to be prepared to give an apologia for the hope we have in Christ (1 Peter 3:15). Apologetics is about Christians understanding what they believe and why, and knowing how to effectively communicate those beliefs.

Apologetics Canada

Apologetics Canada seeks to inspire and challenge young adult believers to think and thinkers to believe.

How do we go about doing this?

Our mission is to work with local churches, helping them engage the young adult community that is living, studying and working in a culture that is hostile to belief in Jesus Christ. We seek to do this by focusing on primary truth issues while always having the message of the Gospel as our end goal. The challenge in Western culture is communicating the message of Jesus in a way that people can understand and appreciate. Sharing the gospel requires us to understand and speak the language of culture and address the questions being asked with intellectual honesty, gentleness and respect. When we do this in the love and winsomeness of Christ Jesus, lives are impacted and culture is changed.
